Police Federal Credit Union of Omaha Is Your First Line of Defense Against Identity Theft

Identity theft affects millions of Americans every year and is consistently the number one complaint to the Federal Trade Commission. That's why Police Federal Credit Union of Omaha has partnered with one of the nation's most trusted names in identity theft recovery to provide comprehensive identity theft protection on every Classic Checking account.

If you become the victim of identity theft, a licensed and certified Recovery Advocate can complete the recovery work on your behalf, placing fraud alerts at the three major credit bureaus, remediating fraudulent transactions, and supporting local and federal law enforcement as they work to stop the criminal(s) using your identity.

Police Federal Credit Union of Omaha is delighted to provide comprehensive coverage and best-in-class customer service. Unlike other identity theft recovery services that require consumers to prove identity theft has occurred before they will help them, our services provide assistance whether or not fraudulent activity currently exists. In addition, our services cover more than 30 different types of identity theft, providing you with complete coverage even if your identity theft incident is not related to your account with us.

At Police Federal Credit Union of Omaha, you don't have to worry about what if, because you're already prepared for what's next. For more information, visit www.OPFCU.net.

*A Testimonial
from a satisfied customer*

"I had initially went with a different bank for a vehicle loan. I had a previous loan through OPFCU and wanted to see if they could help me with the new one. I was able to get a lower interest rate, will pay off the loan sooner, and was able to do everything through the computer without having to drive from Fremont to Omaha to sign everything. Thank you to Janne for all your help, it is much appreciated!!!!" – James B.
